

The Princess Bride

Inigo meets Westley

	Shot	Dialogue
	1 Mid-shot
	2 Mid-shot	Inigo: I do not mean to pry, but you don't by any chance happen to have six fingers on your right hand?
	3 Mid-shot	Westley: Do you always begin conversations this way?
	4 Mid-shot	Inigo: My father was slaughtered by a six-fingered man.
	5 Mid-shot
	6 Mid-shot	Inigo: Was a great sword maker, my father. When the six-fingered man appear and request a special sword, my father took the job. He slave a year before he was done.

	7 Close-up
	8 Close-up
	9 Close-up	Westley: I've never seen it's equal.
	10 Two-shot Over shoulder	Inigo: The six-fingered man returned and demanded it; but at one tenth it's promised price. My father refuse. Without a word, the six-fingered man slash him through the heart. I love my father.
	11 Close-up	Inigo: So naturally, I challenge his murderer to a dual.
	12 Two-shot Over shoulder	Inigo: I fail. The six-fingered man leave me alive.
	13 Extreme Close-up	Inigo: But he gave me this.

	14 Close-up	Westley: How old were you?
	15 Two-shot Over shoulder	Inigo: I was 11 years old. When I was strong enough, I dedicate my life to the study of fencing. So the next time we meet, I will not fail. I will go up to the six-fingered man and say...
	16 Extreme Close-up	Inigo: Hello. My name is Inigo Montoya. You killed my father. Prepare to die.